After Thanksgiving Sale of Ready-to-Wear A Reduction Sale Now Rather Than At the End of the Season

WE HAVE decided, in view of the enormous Christmas business we propose doing this season, to hold a reduction sale of Ready-to-Wear garments now rather than in January. These garments are our regular high grade stock, and several are our special importations. In an advertisement of this kind, it is almost impossible to do justice to the garments on sale, the higher priced exclusive garments especially. However, we believe you are well enough acquainted with the general character of the Ready-to-Wear carried by us, and the mere mention of reductions will be all that is needed to bring you here next week.

After Thanksgiving Sale of Women's and Misses' Dresses

Monday morning we place on sale 500 dresses. Sizes are for women 34 to 44 inches, for misses 14 to 20 years. Dresses are made of this season's favored materials—serges, broadcloths, voiles, fancy materials, imported materials, crepe de chene, etc. Every imaginable color is offered. Styles are the latest produced this winter. Read the following lots. They will give you some idea of our mammoth After-Thanksgiving Sale of Dresses.

$16.50 Dresses $9.85

These dresses are made of batiste, French serge, shepherd plaids and broadcloth. Handsomely embroidered dresses are included as well as the plain tailored styles. Dresses in values to $16.50; After-Thanksgiving Sale price is $9.85

$27.50 Dresses $15.00

Here are dresses of batiste in white, light blue, pink and other delicate shades, also dresses of serge and henrietta cloth and dresses of fancy checked materials. Every approved style of the season is shown. These are dresses whose regular prices range as high as $27.50; our After-Thanksgiving Sale price is $15.00

$34.50 Dresses $20.00

An assortment of dresses that we simply can't describe. The range of materials, of colors and styles is so great that we can only ask that you come and see for yourself. We call special attention to a number of handsome dresses of imported voile. These are silk lined and there are several styles to select from. They come in such delicate shades as pearl, Alice blue, etc., also in the more sedate colors of brown, black and navy. We also direct special attention to the crepe de chene dresses, some for street, others for evening wear. Also, ask you to remember the dainty dresses in flowered chiffon. Dresses in values to $34.50; we make one After-Thanksgiving Sale price of $20.00

SPECIAL NOTE. Dainty Chiffon Dancing Frocks for misses are also included in After-Thanksgiving Sale. These charming frocks come in white, pink, blue and navy. They are simply made but exquisitely youthful and attractive.

After Thanksgiving Sale of Women's and Misses' Suits

$25.00 Suits $18.75

At this reduction, we offer 150 suits. They are made of French serges, fancy suitings and novelty materials of every kind. All sizes are offered. Coats are the correct lengths, cut on semi-fitting, mannish lines. Skirts are the various pleated and gored models that are worn this season—the "hobble" and "semi-hobble" effects are shown. 150 suits in values to $25.00. You have choice during our After-Thanksgiving Sale at $18.75

After Thanksgiving Sale of Imported Garments

We include in our After-Thanksgiving Sale our imported garments. These are one-of-a-kind garments selected by our personal representatives in Paris, Vienna, London and other European cities. Handsomer garments than these were never brought to El Paso. The following items and prices will tell you of the greatness of the reductions, but to realize the beauty of these garments you must see them.

EXHAUSTS FUNDS IN SEEKING MONEY

Mrs. Brown Comes From Missouri to Look After Daughter's Insurance.

Believing herself to be the beneficiary named in a life insurance policy written for her daughter, Mrs. Theodore McGown, deceased, Mrs. Louisa Brown, of St. Charles, Mo., arrived in El Paso a week ago, but exhausting her funds she has been compelled to seek work and is now employed as a menial by W. A. Harding, 921 Myrtle avenue.

According to Mrs. Brown's story, Mrs. McGown, who came to El Paso with her husband, died on Nov. 22, 1907, of lung trouble. Previously Mrs. Brown states, Mrs. McGown told her that she would benefit as a result of her death.

The McGowns are said by Mrs. Brown to have lived at 611 Copper street, in Highland Park. After Mrs. McGown's death, her husband returned to St. Charles, Mo., but Mrs. Brown says she has never been able to obtain any satisfaction as to the disposition of the life insurance papers. The home office of the insurance company is believed by Mrs. Brown to be in California, Mo.

Thinking that she might be able to obtain information as to the estate of her daughter by coming to El Paso, she arrived last Saturday and, until all her money was expended, she interviewed neighbors in Highland Park who knew her daughters.

Mrs. Brown is now waiting to hear from her husband, who lives in St. Charles, Mo., and from her son in Chicago, Ill.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE HAPPY HOUR.

Raymond Teal at the Happy Hour presents "The Courtship in Japan," beginning tomorrow night. He says it is "beautifully costumed, has special scenery and is a real musical production, with grand music." Seats are on sale at Ryan's drug store. Only one show is given nightly—at 8:15. There will be a change of show Thursday.

LEECH DECLARES HE IS A PAUPER

His Statement of Facts Ten Days' Free Job for the Court Stenographer.

John Leech, convicted of the murder of E. Kohlberg, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary, is a pauper, according to his sworn statement as detailed in a pauper's oath which was filed in the 34th district court Saturday morning. As a result, W. H. Fryer, stenographer for the 34th district court, is required to prepare the statement of facts as brought out during the trial of the case without any hope of remuneration. The statement of facts is the testimony introduced.

Whether Leech's attorneys thought Mr. Fryer would refuse to prepare the statement of facts, and thus give Leech a strong plea for a reversal when the case is finally brought before the court of criminal appeals, is a mooted question, but it is thought Mr. Fryer will do the work anyhow. In the event he refuses to do the work as is prescribed by law, Leech's attorneys might secure a reversal on the score that being a poor man, he was unable to pay for the statement of facts and therefore unable to properly present his case in the higher court.

The statement of facts will be of considerable length, comprising perhaps 300 or 400 typewritten pages, and must be completed within ten days. Mr. Fryer, if he does the work, will be compelled to employ stenographers to assist him.
